13:17:12 From Teresa to All Panelists : I like that with regards to heritage speakers. Typically at the high school age they just focus on their own cultural background. The images are nice for retelling stories at their own level.

13:19:45 From awalker to All Panelists : Great! Thanks. Will it be linked to Google?

13:22:10 From awalker to All Panelists : Can they play the text audio while viewing the storyboard?

13:23:57 From awalker to All Panelists : I was trying it out myself, trying to remember what was happening in each story board image- and it was a lot to recall even in English- that's why I asked- but it was a level one book that showed all the storyboard images at once 13:27:21 From julie : do these allow students to type right on them and submit?

13:27:45 From awalker to All Panelists : How long do you normally spend on a text & its materials?

13:47:41 From awalker to All Panelists : That was awesome! How do you use the Notebook feature? How do students share what they write there with you?
